URGENT NEWS REGARDING the ACLB *****

Remember when Bob Keith spoke at the December monthly meeting?

One of the key points of his presentation is the drastic changes proposed by the Oregon legislature. These changes could remove the semi-independent status of our current board. WE COULD be governed and investigated by non-appraisers!

THERE IS A HEARING IN SALEM AT 3:00 PM THIS WEDNESDAY January 21!

Capitol Building House of Representatives Room D

MEMBERS ARE ASKED to ATTEND and SHOW OUR SUPPORT For THE ACLB.

THIS could be our only chance to defend the existence of the ACLB! If we miss this opportunity your appraisal licensure fees could go into the general fund and appraiser issues would be managed by non-appraisers!

Planning for 2009

Thanks for all the feedback from the surveys at the monthly meeting!

This information provides us with the framework for classes, committees and projects and lets us know where our members want our efforts focused.

There are many great classes in the works for 2009. Once the dates and venues are confirmed the schedule will be posted.

The legislative committee has been very busy! Carl spoke at the most recent ACLB meeting and will speak again this week to our state legislatures. NAIFA is hard at work for its members!

On a lighter note...
